

Doak Scholarship

Application Form for Seniors in Agricultural Education

Two $750 scholarships are available to seniors in the AECE Agricultural Education concentration. The intent of the scholarship is to defray costs incurred during the semester of student teaching. Recipients will be notified within a month of the application deadline. The scholarship will be awarded for the Spring semester of student teaching.

Application Deadline: October 1

Name _____

Campus Address _____

Campus Phone _____ E-mail address _____

Home Address _____

Home Phone _____ Home County _____

University GPA _____ Transfer GPA (if applicable) _____

UIN _____

Please prepare responses to the following items.

- Leadership and Service Activities--Attach a current one-page resume highlighting your leadership and service activities in agricultural education organizations as well as other organizations.
- Discuss the experiences you expect to gain from your student teaching internship (one page maximum).
- Please write your mission statement for conducting a quality comprehensive program of agricultural education.
- Provide any additional information you would like the scholarship committee to know when considering this application.

Please read and affirm the items on the other side of this application page.

Please read the following and sign below.

Applicant Statement

1. In the event of receiving the Doak Scholarship, I agree to send a letter of appreciation to the donor and provide a copy to the HCD Scholarship Program Coordinator.
2. In the event of receiving the Doak Scholarship, I agree to provide the Doak Scholarship Committee with a written or personal report of my student teaching experience and the adequacy of the scholarship funds received.
3. I affirm that the information provided on this application is truthful and accurate to the best of my knowledge and understanding.

Signature of applicant

Date

Completed applications are due in 133 Bevier Hall by October 1.

Scholarship recipients will be notified of their award by November 15.